

European Competition Day 31 May 2018, Sofia

ECN+ Directive: what will the plus bring?

MODERATOR

Professor Pinar Akman specialises in competition law at the University of Leeds, where she is the Director of the Centre for Business Law and Practice. She is the author of The Concept of Abuse in EU Competition Law: Law and Economics Approaches and numerous articles. Her particular expertise lies in abuse of dominance and increasingly in the application of competition law in technology markets. She is a Non-Governmental Advisor to the UK and Turkey for the International Competition Network. She sits on the Editorial Boards of World Competition and Oxford Competition Law. She is a jury member for the Antitrust Writing Awards. In 2018, she was awarded a Philip Leverhulme Prize which recognises the achievement of outstanding researchers.

SPEAKERS

Ms Konstantina Strouvali is Deputy Head of the unit “European Competition Network and Private Enforcement” in DG Competition of the European Commission. The unit is in charge of coordinating the activities of the ECN and the ECN+ proposal, and ensuring implementation and follow-up of the Damages Directive. Konstantina was previously a Case and Policy Coordinator advising on the shaping and scrutinizing of major antitrust investigations and coordinating antitrust policy initiatives. She has worked also as a case handler at the Directorate dealing with basic industries, manufacturing and consumer products. Prior to joining DG Competition she was in private practice in Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer and Howrey LLP in Brussels.

Prof. em. Dr. Jacques Steenberghe is President of the Belgian competition authority since its establishment as an independent authority in 2013. Prior to that he has been a director general of the directorate general for competition in the Belgian ministry of economic affairs. He taught competition law at the University of Leuven from 1980 to 2014. Before joining the competition authority, he was partner in the Brussels office of Allen & Overy, and he has been legal secretary to the President of the Court of Justice under the presidency of Prof. J. Mertens de Wilmars. He participated as a lecturer in many conferences and is an author of numerous publications on EU and competition law.

Dr. Natalie Harsdorf is Deputy Managing Director of the Austrian Federal Competition Authority since 2014. Since 2017 she also heads the Legal Service of the agency. Previously she worked as a case handler for the Authority and as assistant at the University of Vienna. Harsdorf studied Law at the Universities of Vienna and Dublin and holds a degree of the College of Europe in Bruges. Secondments with the Court of Justice of the EU and the European Commission rounded up her professional experience. In 2016 she was counted among the 26 leading women in competition enforcement worldwide by GCR.

Dr. Gunnar Kallfass has been Head of unit for "German and European Antitrust Law" in the General Policy Division of the Bundeskartellamt since 2013. He joined the authority in 2008 after working as a Research Associate at the University of Hamburg (Institute for International Affairs). The positions he has held at the Bundeskartellamt include legal advisor in the department dealing with "litigation and legal issues" and case officer in the 6th Decision Division (media, sports) of the Bundeskartellamt.

Mr Gianluca Sepe is Head of Unit - EU Affairs at the Italian competition authority. He works in the competition authority since 1998. He has extensive international experience in the field of competition and consumer policy, and represented the authority in several international fora. He was also seconded as a national expert to the European Commission's Directorate General for Consumer Protection for 18 months. He has been directly involved in the implementation of numerous projects of international co-operation and technical assistance between the Italian authority and competition agencies of other jurisdictions such as Bulgaria, Croatia, Romania, the Czech Republic, Algeria, Malta and Albania.

Competition in energy markets: the way to ensure affordable and secure supplies for all consumers

MODERATOR

Ms Teresa Moreira is Head of Competition and Consumer Policies Branch of UNCTAD since October 2016. Previously she was a Consumer Director-General of Portugal since January 2010 and a Member of the Board of the Portuguese Competition Authority from 2003 to 2008. She has also been Portugal's Director-General and Deputy Director General for International Economic Relations, and held senior positions at the Directorate-General for Competition. She worked for over 20 years as a Teaching Assistant in International Economic Law and European Law at the University of Lisbon.

SPEAKERS

Dr. Antonio Gomes is Head of the Competition Division at the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). He has been President of the Portuguese Competition Authority from 2013 to 2016, having previously served as a Senior Competition Expert in the OECD's Competition Division in 2013. Prior to that he was Director of the Merger Department of the Portuguese Competition Authority. Mr Gomes is also an Assistant Professor at the Universidade de Aveiro, Portugal, since 2005. He holds a Doctorate Degree in Economics from the University of York, United Kingdom.

Mr Alexander Gee joined the European Commission in 1999 after six years working for HM Treasury, the UK Ministry of Finance. He worked for two years in DG Justice and Home Affairs and joined DG Competition in 2002. In DG Competition he has worked in the Energy Unit and in the Case Support Unit and in July 2010 he joined the Payments Unit as Deputy Head of Unit. He rejoined the Energy Unit as Deputy Head of Unit in 2016.

Mr Dimitar Kyumyurdzhiev is Deputy Chairman of the Bulgarian Commission on Protection of Competition (CPC) since June 2016. He has been a Member of the CPC also in the period 1997-2003 when he was a member of the negotiation team for accession of Bulgaria to the European Union as a head of working group "Competition Policy". He has been also Deputy Minister of Defence, attorney-at-law, Head of the Political Cabinet of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Representative of Bulgaria at the Group of States against corruption (GRECO) of the Council of Europe. Since 2002 he is a Part-time lecturer on competition law at the Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridski".

Mr Albert Riera is a Senior Economist at Compass Lexecon. He is specialized in the energy sector, where he has advised governments and major energy companies in Europe, Latin America and the Middle East in a wide variety of issues. He also has experience in antitrust and regulatory issues in the telecommunication, transport and postal sectors. Prior to that he has lectured microeconomics at Universidad Carlos III de Madrid and co-founded a carpooling company.

Mr Daniel Colgan is a partner in the global law firm DLA Piper. He is an experienced competition law specialist based in Brussels and has practised in this field for almost 15 years. Mr Colgan's achievements have been recognised, inter alia, by his inclusion in the current Global Competition Review (GCR) "40 under 40" survey as one of the 40 top competition law practitioners under the age of 40 in the world. He has worked on a wide range of complex competition law issues in an international context, covering both the EU and national regimes. In particular, he has managed major high-profile global cartel matters involving coordinated investigations by multiple competition authorities worldwide as well as complex multi-jurisdictional merger control proceedings.

Fixing the damages – expected effects of the application of the Damages Directive

MODERATOR

Ms Michaela Nosa has worked for the Slovak Competition Authority since 2004. Currently she holds a position of a director of the Legal, Legislative and International Relations Division. She represents the Authority in the court proceedings as well as at the meetings of the ECN and other international events. Ms Nosa participated in the discussions at the Council of the EU on the European Commission's draft of the Damages Directive. She was also a head of the team responsible for the drafting of the last and so far the most extensive amendment to the Slovak Competition Act. She is an author of several professional articles on competition law. She was awarded among "30 in their 30s" women competition professionals in enforcement in 2017.

SPEAKERS

Prof. Damien Gerard serves as a case handler in the Directorate General for Competition of the European Commission and is an academic affiliated with the University of Louvain (UCL, Belgium) and the College of Europe (Bruges and Natolin), where he also heads the Global Competition Law Center (GCLC). A graduate of the University of Louvain, the College of Europe and NYU Law School, he previously clerked for Judge Lenaerts of the European Court of Justice and practiced with Cleary Gottlieb LLP for more than 10 years. Damien Gerard has published and spoken extensively on EU competition law enforcement, substantive antitrust law, EU State aids law and general EU law, including internal market and institutional matters.

Mr Roberto Chieppa is Secretary General of the Italian Competition Authority since December 2011. He is also Magistrate of the Council of State since February 2000 and Section President of the Council of State since March 2017. Prior to that he has worked as a Magistrate in Regional Administrative Courts. Lecturer for university and post-graduate courses on administrative law and antitrust law; co-edited and contributed to legal trade journals, authored over 50 publications in the administrative law sector.

Ms Andrea Hamilton is Partner in law firm McDermott Will & Emery in Brussels. She has experience in the field of competition in the EU and also in the US. She regularly represents clients before the European Commission and national competition authorities and also coordinates global investigations. She has experience on damages actions, including in the US and Europe. She received the Past Presidents Award from the International Association of Young Lawyers in 2014 for a report she co-authored on collective damages. In 2016, Ms Hamilton was named by Global Competition Review as one of the 40 leading practitioners in the field of competition under the age of 40. She has also been identified by Who's Who as a Future Leader in Competition Law (2017, 2018).

Ms Nadine Watson is a Senior Vice President at Compass Lexecon, based in Madrid. She holds a PhD in Economics from the University of California, San Diego. She has more than 10 years of experience in the application of economic analysis and econometrics in the context of competition cases and quantification of damages. She has given expert testimony before the European Commission as well as before national competition authorities and courts. Prior to that she worked four years in the Competition Policy group at NERA and seven years in the European Competition practice at LECG. She also worked at the Bank of Spain, the Banco de la República of Colombia, and the Universidad Complutense of Madrid.